

END OF YEAR AWARDS CEREMONY
MIDDLE SCHOOL
MAY 10, 2016

DUKE TIP QUALIFIERS

The prestigious Duke Talent Identification Program identifies seventh graders at Orangeburg Preparatory School as being eligible to participate in its Seventh Grade Talent Search. Students eligible for Duke TIP had to score in the 95 percentile or an accepted subtest or total battery on the grade-level Stanford Achievement Test or an accepted state specific test taken during the spring of the sixth grade. They are also encouraged to take the SAT test as seventh graders--the same one that college-bound high school students take. These students are Sidney Adicks, Sam Brenn, Brady Crider, James DeVries, Zack Felkel, Elliott Fogle, Tanner Garrick, Jackson Hutto, Peyton Inabinet, Kentlee Kneece, Emily Kruger, Julie Lin, Nick Shafer, Kearstin Shealy, Noah Thoma, Julius Thompson, Landon Toole, Madison Weeks, Cate Williams

DUKE TIP STATE RECOGNITION	One of our Duke TIP qualifiers is earning an award by scoring approximately at or above the national average of recent high school graduates on at least one part of the ACT or the SAT. This student has been invited to a special recognition ceremony held at a university in our state. We would like to also honor this student today, JULIE LIN.
GEORGE GRICE SCHOLARSHIP	To be eligible, eighth graders had to score at or above the 90th percentile nationally on the reading and/or math subtests of the Stanford 10 Achievement Test taken during the spring of the seventh grade and be recommended by the Headmaster. These students are Mac Boland, Carter Chandler, David Jones, Kaylee Schurlknight, Bailey Williams, Davin Johnson, Nhi Ngo, Billy Workman

SOUTH CAROLINA
JUNIOR SCHOLAR

This award is awarded to an eighth grade student that has been identified and recognized at either the State Recognition or Grand Recognition event by Duke University's Talent Identification Program during the student's seventh grade year. This qualification allows the student to gain early experience when taking the PSAT in October with our sophomores and juniors. This year's student is Kaitlyn Robinson.
